

FACULTY SENATE ELECTION CALENDAR SPRING 2024

Spring 2024 Election Schedule

In accordance with Bylaw 12.1, the Appointments and Elections officer proposes the following schedule for the election of Faculty Senators for the 2024 – 2026 term.

March 11	Monday	Faculty Senate review and approval of election schedule and distribution list
April 5	Tuesday	Senate proposed schedule and distribution list to college governance bodies
April 26	Friday	Deadline for constituencies to submit nominations to college governance bodies
May 10	Friday	College governing bodies to certify and submit nominations to Faculty Senate
May 20	Monday	Faculty Senate to certify election results
May 22	Weds	Election results posted to Faculty Senate website
June 3	Monday	4 PM: Faculty Senate meeting, seating of new Senate and Election of Officers.

2024 College Voting Areas Distribution

Faculty members with a .5 FTEF (annual average) or greater appointment are eligible to be nominated to fill representative seats. Each college faculty and/or constituency is entitled to determine the procedure that will be used to nominate and elect area representatives, provided that all voting-eligible faculty (.5 FTEF annual average) are afforded the opportunity to vote in the election of their respective representative(s).

There are no proposed changes to the current distribution by Area and Department (see page 2).

College Voting Areas – 2024 Elections Open Seats
Distribution by Area and Department

Area A – College of Science and Engineering Advanced Materials Science & Engineering, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Engineering & Design, Geology, Mathematics, Physics & Astronomy, Science Mathematics & Technology	Total Seats: 7 Open Seats: 1 Derek Yip-Hoi (Engineering and Design) Filled: Geology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Computer Science, Engineering and Design
Area B – College of Humanities and Social Sciences – Social Sciences Anthropology, Communication Sciences & Disorders, Health & Human Development, Linguistics, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies	Total Seats: 4 Open Seats: 0
Area C – College of Humanities and Social Sciences – Humanities Communication Studies, East Asian Studies, English, Global Humanities and Religions, History, Journalism, Modern & Classical Languages, Multidisciplinary Studies, Philosophy	Total Seats: 5 Open Seats: 5 One vacant seat, others currently held by President-Elect Michael Slouber (Global Humanities and Religions), Blanca Aranda (Modern and Classical Languages), Charles Anderson (History), Allison Giffen (English)
Area D – College of Fine and Performing Arts Art and Art History, Dance, Theatre, Music, Design, Arts Enterprise and Cultural Innovation	Total Seats: 2 Open Seats: 0
Area E – College of Business and Economics Accounting, Decision Sciences, Economics, Finance and Marketing, Management, MBA, Executive Education	Total Seats: 3 Open Seats: 0
Area F – Fairhaven College of Interdisciplinary Studies	Total Seats: 1 Open Seats: 0
Area G – College of the Environment Environmental Sciences, Environmental Studies, Urban and Environmental Planning & Policy	Total Seats: 2 Open Seats: 1 (Troy Abel)
Area H – Woodring College of Education Elementary Education, Health and Community Studies Secondary Education, Education Leadership and, Inclusive Teaching, Teacher Education Outreach Programs, Justice and Engagement Programs	Total Seats: 3 Open Seats: 1 Vacant Filled: Health and Community Studies, Education Leadership and Inclusive Teaching
Area I – The Libraries	Total Seats: 1 Open Seats: 1 (Shevell Thibou)
Graduate School	Total Seats: 1 Open Seats: 0

FACULTY SENATE ELECTION CALENDAR SPRING 2024

DRAFT